

A Great Improvisation: Franklin, France, and the Birth of America

A Pulitzer Prize-winning Author A Book-of-the-Month Club and History Book Club Selection In December 1776, a small boat delivered an old man to France. So begins a dazzling narrative account of Benjamin Franklin's French mission. He was seventy years old, without any diplomatic training, and possessed of the most rudimentary French. He succeeded brilliantly. Stacy Schiff offers an utterly fresh and thrilling account of Franklin's Parisian adventure and America's debut on the world stage.
