

Barbarians at the Gate: The Fall of RJR Nabisco

This behind-the-scenes account of the 1988 collapse of RJR Nabisco chronicles perhaps the most legendary - and at the time, the largest - corporate takeovers in American history. The events leading up to this infamous $25 billion struggle for control exhibited unprecedented degrees of ruthlessness, greed, and egomania. Featured are such Wall Street figures as RJR Nabiscos president, famed buyout king Henry Kravis, Shearson Lehman Hutton CEO Peter Cohen, Ted Forstmann, and others. Best selling authors Bryan Burrough and John Helyar draw on their expertise as Wall Street Journal reporters, with full access to all of the key players.
