

New readers will delight in this rib-tickling fantasy with its exuberant illustrations and hilarious twist. What could be more fun than a houseful of prehistoric pals? When a boy discovers that dinosaurs are emerging from the eggs sitting on the kitchen counter, its a dream come true. Unfortunately, the boy is not so sure Mom and Dad will feel the same way, so he decides to hide his new friends. That plan works for a while, but the dinosaurs keep growing, and growing, and growing! The boy is running out of hiding places. When the secret is out, how will Mom and Dad react? About the Series I Like to Read® books are picture books written and illustrated so that even the newest reader can enjoy a satisfying, quality literary experience. The books in the series are written at kindergarten and early first grade reading levels. These books deftly combine text and art to create a positive experience for new readers. School Library Journal This series dares to make entertaining reads from short texts and familiar vocabulary Kirkus Reviews Each one makes the hard world of learning to read enough fun to encourage children at this critical developmental moment to try another one.
