

Its Little Rabbits first day at school. He decides his favourite toy, Charlie Horse, wants to start school too, so they set off together. Before theyve even got to school, Charlie Horse has made Little Rabbit eat his whole packed lunch and then proceeds to create mischief all day - galloping when he should be listening and jumping in the cake mix. Little Rabbit gets very upset when Charlie Horse leads him away from his new friends on a nature walk and they find themselves all alone in the wood ...But Little Rabbits teacher and friends find them and Little Rabbit goes home happy, looking forward to his next day at school - having decided Charlie Horse isnt ready to start school and can stay at home!
