

The Veil of Tears

What could be more beautiful than Gods image indelibly placed upon every human being that comes into this world. We are all made in the image of God. When we allow Him to take the reins of our lives, that image shines from within an indescribable beauty of Gods Sovereignty for the whole world to see. God allows us to observe each Facet of His Sovereign Jewel on the path this captivating narrative takes. The author calls this the Majestic Twist. Esther chose to raise no questions or doubts, but with great personal sacrifice, gave up all she held dear, to save her nation from a great genocide. Giving up her own wishes, and putting her trust in God, oblivious to the outcome, sent her on a divine appointed journey from obscurity to notoriety. The Bible Book of Esther is read every year, by her people, on the Feast of Purim. LuciAnn, a cancer survivor, after her husband, Youth For Christ Evangelist Shel Helsley, of 85 years, went to be with the Lord, chose to follow her hearts desire to write. At age 80 she studied online, receiving a diploma from the (ICL) Institute for Childrens Literature in Connecticut. She resides in Billings, Montana with puppy Cassie, surrounded by her children and grandchildren.
